

Sharing Life Community Outreach Announces Key Leadership Promotions

Mesquite, Texas on October 22, 2025 — Sharing Life Community Outreach is proud to announce several internal promotions that strengthen its leadership team and reinforce the organization's commitment to serving families and individuals in need across North Texas.

The following team members have been promoted in recognition of their outstanding service and leadership:

- Jacob Taylor – Chief Operating Officer (COO)
- Raven Carr – Senior Director of Client Services
- Jennifer Mays – Senior Manager of Development
- Dominique Vincent – Senior Manager of Grants and Impact

Each of these individuals has demonstrated deep dedication to Sharing Life's mission and values, bringing compassion, professionalism, and innovation to their respective roles.

"We are incredibly blessed with a team whose hearts and talents shine through everything they do," said Teresa Jackson, Chief Executive Officer of Sharing Life Community Outreach.

These promotions reflect not only their hard work but also their unwavering commitment to helping our neighbors find stability, dignity, and hope.

Jacob Taylor, joined in 2013 and has been instrumental in expanding the organization's operations and strategic initiatives. As Chief Operating Officer, he will oversee daily operations, ensuring programs continue to run efficiently and effectively to serve those in need.

Raven Carr, joined in 2020 and has shown exceptional leadership in client relations and program delivery. In her new role as Senior Director of Client Services, she will lead initiatives that enhance client experiences and streamline service delivery.

Jennifer Mays, joined in 2021 and has played a key role in advancing the organization's development efforts and cultivating donor relationships. As Senior Manager of Development, she will continue to build vital partnerships that sustain and grow Sharing Life's mission.

Dominique Vincent, joined in 2023 and has been instrumental in strengthening the organization's grants management and impact measurement processes. As Senior Manager of Grants and Impact, she will continue to expand Sharing Life's capacity to measure outcomes and secure funding that drives long-term community transformation.

Together, these leaders represent the heart of Sharing Life — dedicated to helping individuals and families overcome crisis, build stability, and pursue a brighter future.

About Sharing Life Community Outreach

Founded in 1999, Sharing Life Community Outreach is a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping families in crisis and those striving for long-term stability. Through compassion-driven programs and partnerships, Sharing Life serves thousands of individuals each year with food, financial aid, and essential resources.

For the greater good,
Teresa Jackson
CEO Sharing Life

